

Los Angeles, CA, 2016-03-20

Ofi-002

Greetings;

Of our considerations:

The Youth against Cancer Foundation with full support of the Standing Committee of Ecuadorean National Holidays, extend the cordial invitation to attend the Third International Conference of the Youth with Cancer and Survivors, to be held in the city of Los Angeles, California 5 to 8 August 2016.

In 2012 , along with 15 countries in the World Convention of the Youth with Cancer and Survivors, we developed the Declaration of the oncological rights to the youth, we now extend you the invitation to participate in this meeting between patients from 13 countries, in which we will elaborate a manual with tips on "how I overcame my diagnosis "and strengthen leadership skills of each participant.

Attached is the tab to be completed by the applicant to the 3rd. EIJC ,which will be reviewed by the organizing committee.

Expenditure in Los Angeles CA. Will be covered by the Organizing Committee (accommodation, food, mobilization, entrance to Disney)

We will have experts in psycho-oncology, such as Dr.Josymar Chacin (Venezuela) and Psychologist Cliserio Rojas (Mexico) who will lead the academic area of the event, in addition to yoga classes and laughing therapy. (OR LAUGHTER, CAN BOTH)

The general objectives of the meeting are:

- to Develop the youth diagnosed with cancer and survivors ,clear life projects, strengthening their leadership skills, to become sources of inspiration in their communities, positively influencing other patients and their families.
- Develop a manual of tips for patients and families to effectively cope with the disease and treatment of cancer.
